Decline in Tribal Population

2462. SHRI RAGHAVJI : Will the Minister of WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a) whether there was a decline in the population of tribals during the last three censuses;

(b) if so, the number of tribals according to the last three censuses, State/Union Territory wise;

(c) the reasons for this decline; and

(d) the reasons for this decline; and

(e) the measures being taken by Government in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF WELFARE (SHRI SITARAM KESRI): (a) No, Sir, ther is no decline in the total population of tribal in the country during the last three censuses. However, there is decline in Schedule Tribe Population in Goa during the period 1981-1991. Seven Scheduled Tribes have shown continuous decline in their population since 1961vide Statement-I (See below) ST wise 1991 census figures are not available.

(b) The State/Union Territory wise Schedule Tribe population figures as per 1971, 1981 and 1991 censuses are laid on the Table of the House vide Statement-II (See below)

(c) Though R.G.I. has reported interstate migration, under-enumeration etc. as possible reasons for this decline, socioeconomic factors, specific to such STs may also be responsible for decline in population of some STs.

(d) The Government is implementing various programmes/schemes for the socio-economic development of STs. Special Central Assistance and grant under first proviso to Article 275 (1) of the Constitution for the welfare of STs is also being given to the States/ UTs.
